TORQUAY
THE OUTER HARBOUR AND VANE HILL

LL 2703

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE

(For Address Only)

Torquay Harbour and Vane Hill.—The large outer harbour, built by Lord Haldon at a cost of £70,000, was opened in 1870, and purchased by the Local Board in 1887. At a further cost of £90,000 the Corporation extended and improved the harbour, and it is not only used for exports and imports, but has been a favourite Yachting station.

TORQUAY

"OILETTE" Postcard No. 3016
Raphael Tuck & Sons, Ltd.
Printed in England

Copyright London

C+PA 12.9